Information at a glance

- Do I need to make an appointment to try on bridal gowns?
 - It is advisable to ensure that we are able to assist you when you arrive. Weekend appointments are at a premium so book yourself in as soon as you can. Call or email your local store to arrange your appointment and advise us as soon as possible if you need to change or cancel your appointment.
 - How long before my wedding should I choose my gown?
 - Start looking for your gown when you feel ready to however 9-12 months is good timeline to keep in mind for ordering your gown. If you have a budget, remember to consider accessories such as veils, tiaras, shoes and also costs for possible bridal/bridesmaids gowns alterations.
 - How many people should I bring to my appointment?
 - We recommend 2 maybe 3 trusted family or friends who will support your vision and choice.
 - Do I need an appointment for my bridesmaids to try on gowns?
 - Again, it is advisable and if you can bring them all together so you can see your chosen styles on all of the girls. We can also use customers own measurements if your bridesmaids are not able to visit your local store.
 - Will my bridal/bridesmaids gowns need alterations?
 - Our gowns are made to order in standard sizes so you may need alterations for your gown to fit perfectly. You consultant will discuss this with you at your appointment and will advise on alterations services available.
 - When should I book mens hire wear?
 - You can secure your menswear with a per suit deposit. We recommend booking as soon as you know your preferred colour theme to ensure availability. Your local store will arrange an appointment for you to view and try the varied suit collections and accessories. Colours can be co-ordinated to compliment your bridesmaids' gowns.

Your appointment is your opportunity to find out as much information as you need, so don't be afraid to chat with you consultant about anything you feel is relevant. Most importantly choosing your perfect gown should be a memorable experience so try to relax and enjoy this memorable occasion.
